

Marjorie Jones

Teaching Professional, PGA, LPGA

Marjorie, a golf professional for over 25 years, has played on professional golf tours in Europe, Asia, Australia, and the United States on the LPGA. She played in 8 British Opens, 5 United States Opens. She currently is a member of the Women's Legends Tour, whose members include Nancy Lopez. Marjorie, with more than 15 years of teaching experience, is a Class A member of the LPGA and PGA and holds a Masters degree in physiology. She has worked with some of the best teachers in the industry including Pia Nilsson and Lynn Marriott, Annika Sorenstam's coaches.

She has also worked with Dave Pelz, Jack Grout, David Glenz. Marjorie won the 2007 PGA Women's Stroke Play Championship and has won the Australian Open.